

This comment concerns the proposed changes to the INDIANA'S TELEPHONE PRIVACY LAW. I would like the right to contact businesses when I am interested in their services, not when they want to solicit work from me. The proposed changes would only serve to open the floodgates of harassing phone calls from any company that I have dealt with in the past. The law as it stands has worked great. I do not want to see it changed.